● Ever wanted to do research that's FUN?

Group Concept Mapping (GCM) is an evidence-based research process that organizes the ideas of a group and represents them visually in a series of interrelated maps. We are calling in CHWs, employers, policy professionals and partners to participate in GCM to understand how to support CHWs, across various levels, more equitably and effectively. For more details on GCM reach out to hello@stlchwcoalition.org with the subject GCM

● Recap of ASPPH Presentation

Boston University School of Public Health and the Association of Schools and Programs of Public Health (ASPPH) held a Teaching Public Health conversation on June 14. Coalition CEO, Ciearra "CJ" Walker, MPH was invited to co-present by and alongside a trusted partner, Heather Hageman, MBA, Director, Center for Interprofessional Practice and Education at Washington University Medical Center. Heather and CJ led a presentation titled: Making Collaboration Real: Leveraging Community-centered Interprofessional Education – they were joined by a global audience.

DATA FOR THE PEOPLE

Did you know?

When done in a posture of equity and co-learning, data gathering and analysis as a tool can assist in effectively assessing, planning, and implementing positive changes in our neighborhoods and larger communities. When used innovatively, holistically and with social context considered, data can bridge the divide between vision and reality through increased knowledge and awareness.

POLICY WATCH

Check these out!

Policy impacts us all. That's why it's important that we not only know, but also understand various policies, relevant to our families, work and industries. Policies shape our community and their impact—this section aims to build power, inform, and engage neighbors. Do you have a policy in mind that you want to make sure we're watching? Reach out to hello@stchwcoalition.org and let us know - subject: policy watch.

Participate In our Employer Survey!

PARTICIPATION OPPORTUNITY

Scan QR to open survey

With support from our research partners at the University of Missouri St. Louis, Employers are invited to take part in a brief survey. You will be asked questions about your job, organization, experiences, and policies on hiring and supporting CHWs. Your participation is voluntary, and you can decline to answer any particular question or stop the survey at any time. To participate: bit.ly/3XwLimk
